

HELLO, LIFEWORKS SUPERVISORS!

We're over halfway through the summer, meaning first-year students have been placed in their first LifeWorks job and soon you will all be welcoming these new students to your offices across campus. As a reminder, these first-year students expect to hear from their new LifeWorks supervisor during Supervisor Outreach Weeks (July 20-August 3)! Click the link below for more ideas and templates to use.

WHAT IS THE SUPERVISOR SUMMIT?

This is a new conference-style training session designed to equip, encourage and empower LifeWorks supervisors in their important work of managing and mentoring student workers at Berry.

When is it?

Join us for the inaugural Supervisor Summit on Thursday, August 11, in Krannert Ballroom from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. (with optional sessions after lunch!) Can't stay the whole time? That's okay! Come for the beginning and stay as long as you're able.

Who should attend?

Any (and all!) LifeWorks supervisors! Whether you're brand new to supervising LifeWorks students, or a seasoned veteran. Whether you supervise 1 student or 100, there will be something helpful in this Summit for everyone.

Top 5 Reasons YOU should attend the Supervisor Summit:

1. Be the first to know!

We've got some big things coming down the pike for the LifeWorks Program and Dean Marc Hunsaker will kick off the Summit by sharing some of the goals and changes coming soon for student work in 2022-2023!

2. Learn from other supervisors!

You told us about some important topics you wanted training on (e.g., Supervising Gen Z, Giving Effective Performance Feedback, Supporting Student Workers' Mental Health, etc) and we've pulled together some outstanding supervisors who will be hosting workshops and sharing their insights / best practices on these topics. Presenters include Michael McElveen, Lindsay Norman, Alicia Gauker, Becca Smith, Sylvia Howard (and many more). Click here for a sneak peek at the schedule

3. Enjoy free food and door prizes!

Breakfast (and coffee!!) will be provided, and we will raffle off several door prizes for attendees... who doesn't love free stuff!?

4. Be inspired by our great keynote speaker!

Berry alumni Marcus Yates (O3C) will be sharing some inspiration and insights he has gleaned throughout his journey from his first LifeWorks job to his current role as Principal Team Leader for Digital Transformation & technology at Chick-Fil-A's Corporate Support Center. Learn more about Marcus here!

5. Level up & get certified!

For those who want to stick around after the Summit, we will be hosting several table discussions about hot topics (e.g, Scheduling Students Effectively, Optimizing Student Onboarding, etc) during the optional catered lunch. Following lunch, there will be an optional QPR Suicide Prevention Training hosted by the Berry Counseling Center for any supervisors who would like to learn more about how to help someone in a suicidal crisis.

Excited yet? There's still time to sign up using the button below!
